Twisted Limb Paperworks is a carbon-neutral art studio near Bloomington, IN that has been sustainably creating colorful handmade 100% recycled paper and invitations since 1998 using old colored office paper, grocery bags, recycled water, and inclusions of flowers, field grass, and ferns from their woods. 22% of profits are donated to environmental and community groups.

- Handmade Stationery Bundle includes six different color Twisted Limb handmade folded paper note cards and six cream colored 100% PCW recycled PCF envelopes. These cards are great for creating personalized thank you notes and greeting cards. Bundles are wrapped with a strip of handmade paper for beautiful gift giving. Colors are a blend of neutrals, brights, and pastels chosen by us, some with flower inclusions and others with grass flecks. ($15/each)
- Handmade Paper Bits & Pieces Bag is a zip closure bag filled with surprises! Each bag includes 12 large handmade 100% recycled paper pieces (8x5, 5x7, 4x9") plus 1 oz. of smaller scraps. Keep this delightful array of multi-colored remnants around to add zest to scrap booking, card making, and all of your creative projects. ($15/ bag)

Indiana Living Green Magazine

Know the difference between a CFL and a CSO? Know why 'eating local' has little to do with the café next door? Need ideas on how to trim your carbon foot print and raise your eco-IQ?

For these answers and more, read Indiana Living Green: A Hoosier's Guide to a Sustainable Lifestyle, a green lifestyle magazine.

ILG provides information, resources and opportunities for and about local people, events, and ideas, including stories on local foods, energy, natural gardening, green building, travel, transportation, health, education and family. Neither political nor preachy, ILG guides Hoosiers in making changes, small steps at a time, for a cleaner, greener Indiana. ($15 – one year subscription)
